The Annual Report of the Land Commissioner.

Interesting Statistics About the Publie Lands-Abusing the Pre-emption and Homestead Privileges-Sales During the Year Last Past-Recommendations and Suggestions by the Commissioner.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office, Hon. N. C. McFarland, in his annual report to the Secretary of the Interior states that the disposals of public lands during the year embraced 19,030,769 acres, and of Indian land 399,235 acres. This amount was an increase over 1882 of about five million acres, and over 1881 of about eight million acres. The receipts from all scurces in connection with the disposal of public lands were $11,088,479, and from sales of Indian lands $625,404. The public lands were disposed of as follows: Public sales, 273,069 acres; private entries, 2,917,955 acres; preemption entries, 2,285,710 acres; mineral entries, 31,520; homestead entries. 8,171,914; timber culture entries, 3,110,930; entries with military bounty land warrants 45,414; entries with land claim scrips, 10, 580. The total number of entries and filings posted during the year was 251,685, aggregating 30,000,000 acres. The increase in the number of claims recorded in 1883, was 55,548 over the year 1882. The Commissioner states that he is satisfied that preemption filings are made, or procured to be made, to a great extent for speculative purposes, and renews the recommendation that the preemption law be re-pealed. The commutation feature of the homestead law is open to the same abuses as the preemption law. H urges that the homestead laws be amende so as to require proof of actual residence and improvement for a period of not less than two years before a homestead entry may be commuted by cash payments. The report further recommends a total repeal of the timber culture law on account of its inherent defect. The construction of 1,210 miles of land grant railroad was re ported during the year, making a total of 17,449 miles of road reported as constructed under all grants to June 30, 1883. The question of declaring a forfeiture of these grants to where the railroads have not been constructed in the prescribed time, is deemed an appropriate one for legislation. An increase in the salaries of the Commissioner and various Bureau officers is recommended. He also urges a large increase in the clerical force of the office. Two hundred clerks of the higher grades he says are needed at once. As a reason for this large increase in the force, the Commissioner notes an increase of eighty-two per cent in 1883 in the amount of new business brought into the office over that of 1881, and of thirty-nine per cent over the preceding year, while the increase in clerical force allowed by the last annual appropriation was but ten per cent over the preceding year. There are now pending before the office 600,000 claims of record in some stage of inception or progress under general laws. Pending agricultural claims alone involve adjustment of title to 90,000,000 acres, and if one-half of these claims should be perfected into title, it would take the present force employed upon this work three years to complete the adjustments, leaving the whole volume of business that might come up within that period unprovided for.

FATAL CRASH.

Wood Pitterer Patt a Building Down

About Their Own E.rs. NEW YORK, Nov. ... The one story building situated in Thirty-ninth and First avenue, which was in the course of demolition, suddenly collapsed and caused the death of two persons. The building was recently purchased be George Ehret, the brewer, with the intention of building a large cigar factory. Mr. Ehret had sent five carpenters to pull down the structure, which they had scarcely begun to do when they were surrounded by a large number of men, women, and children eager to collect the debris for kindling. The carpenters endeavored to drive away the crowd and one of the wood gatherers, a laborer named John Laws, was seen chopping at one of the joists which were the main support of the building, when suddenly there was a crackling of timber followed by a crash and the roof fell, burying three of the unfortunate pilferers in the ruins. The firemen were speedily summoned and went at once to work to clear the place. Two dead bodies were taken out and identified. One young man was found pinned to the ground by heavy timbers, after being extracted, was found to be seriously injured. A carpenter who was eating his dinner near the building was also seriously injured by being struck on the head by falling timber. The bodies were removed to the morgue and Coroner Kennedy will investigate the

The Virginia Synod Now at It in Charlottesville.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Nov. 2.—The third days' session of the Presbyterian Synod of the South, was opened yesterday morning. The University tendered its hospitalities to the Synod and the invitation was accepted. Rev. Dr. Hall read the report of the Committee on Work Among the Colored People, which opposed the organization of that race into a separate Synod. In order of the day, the resolution touching the election of laymen moderators, was taken up and discussed. A resolution sanctioning the erection of a new chapel for the University was unanimously adopted. The report of the Committee on the Union Theological Seminary was adopted without debate. In the evening the subject of domestic missions was discussed. The report showed there was an increase in the number of members and churches, but a falling off of $10,204 in contributions, as compared with

OBERLIN FANATICS

The Extraordinary Lawsuit Growing Out of Liquor Selling.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 2.—The trial of the suit of F. E. Bronson against Rev. James Brant for $30,000 damages has just been commenced in the Court of Common Pleas. Mr. Bronson, who was some time ago the proprietor of a drug store in the village of Oberlin, where, on account of the numer-ous colleges located in the place, the sale of intoxicating liquors was strictly forbidden, was several times accused of selling whisky contrary to the wishes of the community, thereby incurring their ill will, which finally culminated in the firing and destruction of his store. The present suit grows out of a sermon preached by the Reverend defendant, Feb. 24, 1882, which was afterwards published in the Oberlin News, of which the following is a brief extract: "Ghastly deeds of the past still stretch out their skinny hands and hush thee, good men shall breath freer at thy death. . Thy monument shall be a testimony that a plague is stayed, and, as thy guilty spirit is borne on the blast towards the gates of hell, the hideous shrieks of those whom thou hast ruined shall pierce thee." Bronson claims he only sold liquors as medicine, and that on account of the sermon his character and business have been irretrievably ruined. Therefore he prays for damages.

A TERRIBLE DEED.

Brutal Murder of a Twelve-Year-Old

Boy in Chicago. CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Charles Schrader, twelve years old, was brutally murdered yesterday morning in a vacant lot near Thirty-sixth street. Henry Peterson, a Swedish laborer, was met while leaving the place by a number of people attracted by the boys screams. "What is the matter, Henry?" asked an acquaintance of the latter. "Oh, nothing, except that I have killed a boy," was the reply. "Come and see," said the murderer, conducting the horrified spectators to the spot where the boy lay dead on the ground with blood and brains oozing from his head. The work was done with a club. "My heart is light now that I've killed him," added Peterson. The latter took his departure, and, although the whole force of police is scouring the southern section of the city, he has not yet been arrested. The murderer is probably insane as there existed no motive for the Fine Display of Live Stock.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 2.—The display of live stock at Pimlico, under the auspices of the Maryland Agricultural and Mechanical Association, is attracting a great deal of attention. Prominent among the exhibits is a heard of Devons, thirty-five in number, belonging to Mr. Frank Brown. They have a national reputation and are known as the progeny of the Patterson herd, purcnased from the Earl of Leicester in 1817. Prince Leopold the Second, bred by the Queen of England and imported by Mr. Brown, a few years ago, is now the head of the herd. S. N. a Railroad to the Summit of Pike's

Peak. DENVER, Col, Nov. 2.—The survey of Pike's Peak, with a view of constructing a narrow gauge railroad to its summit, has been completed and a company has been formed to construct the road, which will start at Manitou, at the foot of the mountain, and, by divergencies and curves and steep grades, ascend to the top. The length of the road will be thirty miles, with a maximum grade of 300 feet to the mile. The work will begin at once. The Hon. Jas. H. Kerr, of Colorado Springs, is the President of the company and W. F. Ellis, jr., Chief Engineer. Punishing Two Railroads.

St. Louis, Nov. 2.-A telegram from E. F. Pierson, Assistant Passenger Commissioner of the eastern pooled roads, stated that he has requested the Baltimore & Ohio and the Pennsylvania roads to decline the tickets of the St. Louis & Louisville Air Line and the Chesapeake & Ohio, and to discontinue the fissue of tickets from New York and other eastern points by that route from and after the 5th inst. This is said to be in response to the request made by the pooled lines to punish the Air Line and Chesapeake & Ohio for cutting the rates last summer.

Libel Suits Against Five Newspapers.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—George A. Jackson, through his counsel, Harvey Thompson, brought suits for libel against the Dispatch, Commercial-Gazette, Post, and Times. The article upon which the suits are based appeared in the above papers a few days ago in relation to the suit of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, against Mr. Jackson, whom they claimed had failed to turn over, or was responsible for, certain moneys for which he was accustomed to account. The amount of damages claimed has not yet been stated.

Report of the Adjutant General. WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.- The Secretary of War has received the report of Adjutant-General Drumm. One of the principal features of the report is the recommendation that the term of service of enlisted men be reduced from five to three years, and re-enlistment remain as at present, five years. The number of desertions during the year ending June 30, 1883, was 3,578, WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The testimony in the Hallet Kilbourne case related chiefly to Mr. Kilbourne's jail life, how he fared while incarcerated, and how his business suffered while in prison. The testimony on the part of the plaintiff was closed and the defense opened with the testimony of ex-Sergeant-at-Arms John G. Thompson, who testified to the arrest of Kilbourne by order of the House of Representatives.

ZORA BURNS.

We present above an excellent portrait of the unfortunate young girl whose sad fate and the mystery surrounding it have within the past three weeks awakened so wide-spread an interest. Following, as it did, closely upon the heels of the butcheries of Rose Ambler, in Connecticut, and Ada Atkinson, in Indiana, the assassination of Zora Burns, with its many points of similarity to the two preceeding tragedies, has taken rank among the most noted and sensational crimes ever committed in the country. As will be seen from the dispatch printed below, the investigation of the crime and the search for the murderer have so far resulted in precisely nothing, save the creation of suspicion against a man who has hitherto enjoyed the respect of the community, and who is associated in the crime by only a slender thread of purely circumstantial evidence.-{ED.

LINCOLN, III., Nov. 2.- The verdict of the Coroner's Jury has caused much indignation among those who heard the evidence. One citizen, well known and wealthy, publicly denounced the jury to a crowd of sympathizers, and insisted that a coat of tar and feathers should be given the jurors, after which Carpenter should be taken from the jail and hanged, the decorated jurors to act as pall bearers. Four of the jury believe Carpenter had a hand in the bloody affair. The preliminary hearing will take place Saturday. The verdict of the jury was "killed by an unknown person.

A BURNING VILLAGE.

The Beautiful Town of Willoughby in Flames.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.-Special from Cleveland, O., says: A destructive conflagration if raging in Willoughby, a small town twenty miles east of this city. The fire originated at two o'clock in an old barn and quickly communicated to the business portion of town. A storng wind was blowing at the time and the flames spread rapidly. The following buildings with their entire contents are already destroyed: Kennedy's livery stables, Kennedy & Sons' hardware store, W. T. Clark's drug store, Barnes Bros' paper and paint house, Smith's jewelry establishment, Bartholow's millinery store, A. R. Gunn's residence, Robt. Kennedy's residence and barn. Other business houses are now burning and it is feared the entire business pertion of the town will be destroyed. There was no organized fire department in town and everything is at the mercy of the flames. Telegrams have been sent to Painesville and this city for aid.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 2.-LATER .- The fire at Willoughby is under control. Twenty stores and houses were burned. Half the town is in ashes. The losses aggregate about $100,000, distributed among one hundred people.

The Terrific Gale at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 2.-The gale continued all day yesterday and last night. The Schooner Sophia Minch stranded early yesterday, going to pieces and will be a total wreck. She was valued at $26,000. Within fifty feet of the Sophia Minch, lies the wreck of the Milwaukee Schooner John B. Merrick with iron ore from Escawaba, which stranded last night. Captain Coleman, wife and eight seaman were saved by the Life Saving Crew. The storm was the most protracted known on the lake for a year. Reports from Sandusky and such lake ports show great damage to small shipping interests.

An Old Woman Sentenced to the Penitent ary.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 2.-Mrs. Charlotte B. Furlong, indicted for causing the death of Charity Lewis by malpractice, and recently convicted, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for six years and six months. The only thing that saved her from the full penalty of twenty years was her advanced age, she being fifty-six.

The Fairchild Reception.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 2 .- Quite a large number of local society people attended a reception tendered by Goo, W. Westinghonse to ev-Governor Fairchild and lady, of Wisconsin. SHERMAN'S RETIREMENT.

He Pays His Respects to the President and Takes Leave of the Army. Washington, D. C., Oct. 2.—General Sherman relinquished command of the Army to Lieutenant General Sheridan, and afterward, accompanied by his successor and Secretary Lincoln, paid his respects to the President. In his official order he thanked the officers and men of the Army for fidelity to the trust imposed upon them during his incumbency, and insured them he would watch their future progress with parental solicitude. In his annual report, submitted to the Secretary of War, General Sherman states that he regards the Indians as substantially eliminated from the problem of the Army. There may be sposmodic and temporary alarm, but such Indian wars as have hitherto disturbed public peace and tranquility are not probable. He also renews his recommendation of last year favoring the abandonment of the minor military posts, and that certain strategic posts be enlarged, with permanent barracks to accommodate suitable garri-

A Fourteen-Year-Old Inmate Attempts

Suicide Because of III Treatment. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Mary Kraegor, aged fourteen, an inmate of St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum, attempted suicide by jumping from a second story window of that institution and sustained serious injuries. She says that her life has of late become unbearable, and that she wants to die. The officials of the institution declare that she was well treated and that there is no other reason for her act than a dislike for the discipline. The story that she tells will be officially investigated.

Tseng Interviewed, Denies Terry's

Statements. LONDON, Nov. 2 .- The correspondent of the Central News had an extended interview with Marquis Tseng, the Chinese Ambassador. The Marquis stated that the statements made by Premier Ferry before the Chamber of Deputies on the alleged authority of Mr. Tricon were mischievous misstatements concocted in Paris for political effect. The use of the name of Li Hung Chang was unauthorized and ill-advised, inasmuch as Li Hung Chang, being his personal friend and relative, would never have given utterance to such expressions as were credited to him. It was moreover an absurdity to suppose that the Chinese Government would give contradictory instructions to Li Hung Chang and to its representative at Paris.

Homeless and Helpless. SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 2-Thousands of people have visited the scene of the great fire. The burned district includes a territory half a mile long, and one-eighth, to one quarter of a mile wide. Nearly 1,500 people are homeless, and are being fed by charity. All of them are very poor and most of them are negroes. About 325 houses were' burned, most of them being little wooden tenements. Only one large warehouse, one foundry, and a few of the better class of dwellings were destroyed. The loss is probably a little more than $500,000. It is reported, and is probably true, that the remains of nine negroes have been found in the ruins.

Death of a Mysterious Madman.

TORONTO, Can., Nov. 2 .- Papers found in the pockets of the youn; man who died at midnight raving mad at the Rasin House, where he had registered as J. M. Burns, Baltimore, indicate that he was Archie Dixon, Paymaster of the Allegheny Rail road office, Pittsburg. It is alleged he has been mixed up in a murder. PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 2. - Archie Dickson, Paymaster of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, died in Toronto. He was a victim of alcohol, disappeared, and during his spree, turned up in Toronto with delirium tremens. He imagined he was concerned in a murder and took laudanum. He left his accounts in perfect order.

Beauties of the Divorce Laws.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.-James B. MacDonald was married in Newark, N. J., about three years ago. Harry Mullin attended the wedding. Shortly after MacDonald found Mullin in unlawful relations with his wife. The false friend, leaving his own wife in Brooklyn, came to Chicago with Mrs. Mac-Donald. Last week the wronged husband heard of the pair, and yesterday morning had them before Justice Kersteen. The woman surprised her husband by showing him a decree of divorce issued in Bent county, Colorado. He had nothing more to say, and the case was forthwith dismissed. Mullin and the woman in the case have been playing at the National Theater.

Only a Bluff.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 2.-Regarding the published statements that railroad magnates intend to build a new road from Erie, Pa., to Pittsburg, to give the Baltimore & Ohio and Reading Railroad Companies a lake outlet, the following dispatch has been received from Erie: "The new railroad, announced in dispatches from here, to be built by the New York parties over the bed of the old Erie and Pittsburg Canal, is believed by knowing ones to be only a bluff on the part of those in litigation with the Pennsylvania Railroad over the old canal property, and who wish either to force a settlement or sell out."

Mechanical Engineers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.- The annual meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers continued its session. After the transaction of some routine business, the following officere were elected for the ensuing year: President, E. D. Levitt, of Cambridgeport, Mass.; Vice Presidents, A. B. Couch, of Philadelphia, J. V. Merrick, of Philadelphia, W. R. Eckert, of San Francisco, John Fritz, of Bethlehem, Pa., Wm. Metcalf, of Pittsburg, Pa. and Henry Norton, of Hoboken, N. J. A NEW BIT OF ROGUERY.

In Which a Clever Youth is Aided by a Pretty Girl.

Baltimore Sun.

An ingenious swindle, and one which has been worked to great success, has been practiced on unsuspecting trade people, druggists and others in Baltimore this week. The latest three transactions took place about dusk Thursday evening, October 18th, and the victims were all within a short distance of each other within a short distance of each other. About the time mentioned a well-dressed young man, attended by an engaging looking young lady, drove up in front of a well-known drug store in North Balti-more. He did not alight, but called loudly for the proprietor of the store, who went out to see what was wanted.

Then the geenteel young man, in a hurried and breathless way, explained that he was the son of a well-known coal Southern Florida uninhabitable.

Tennessee has at least four sources of wealth: Its fertile fields, that produce every crop known in this country; its manufactures, its minerals, and its immense wealth of valuable timber.

Would the druggist kindly loan him $10, as he was in too great a hurry to go all the way back home for some. Of course the drug store man would. The boldness of the request and the appearance of the young request and the appearance of the young man were sufficient, and the druggist went into the store, took $10 from the drawer, returned to the carriage and

There is a great deal of foolishness in be brayed in a mortar without being impressed by the process; but even these creatures are capable of doing great harm. Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, widow of the late Confederate chieftain, recently visited Boston in company with her daughter. On her return to Charlotte, N. C., she found that certain Southern newspapers had reflected upon her to such an extent that it was incumbent upon her to write a card. This she did. In it she says that herself and daughter, in company with Gov. For and About Women.

Six widows, aggregate age 536 years, live in a bunch on a country road, near New Haven.

Marie Antoinette's harp, richly inlaid with ivory, has turned up in an old curiosity shop in Berlin.

A young woman in Erie, Pa, has married her brother's wife's father. She therefore becomes her brother's mother-

The following epitaph came before the Oldham Corporation Cemeteries' Committee for approval: "Think what a wife should be, and she was that."

A certain Boston Belle, endowed with twenty-five dress fans, has fallen into decline. Some thoughtless person reported to her that Ex-Queen Bess, of the jury found a verdict for the plaintiff England, had five more, some of them

An old lady named Brown, of Hinton, Mich., has the grayest of hair, which is now turning its original color. She is cutting her third teeth. She has had her second eyesight for years, and can see to do fine work.

Mr. Spurgeon says that the reasons which a good woman presented for objecting to a certain preacher were striking ones. She said that, in the first place, he read his sermon; in the second, he did not read it well; and in the third place, she said it was not worth

Don't pay the Bulletin's price for matches.

New Republican.

The BULLETIN has no price for matches. It claims the honor only of having regulated the price of that article. Last week there were a number of merchants in Maysville who were apparently ignorant that the tax had been removed. This week matches are sold everywhere in the city at the proper prices.

Mr. Joseph Overley, a valued citizen, died at his residence on the Flemingsburg turnpike, near this city, on the 29th ult., in the seventy-fourth year of his age. He had been in feeble health for some time and his death was not altogether unexpected. Mr. Overley was a mechanic and had worked continuously at his trade for more than forty years. A good and useful man is lost to the community.

Referring to the Bulletin's suggestion that the name of Second street shall be changed to "Boar's Walk," the New Republican says:

And we respectfully suggest to Council that the above is a Bore's talk, and should be placed on record as such.

The Council is respectfully informed that we admit the soft impeachment-with the amendment that it is a smooth-bore's talk, that hits center every time, and we have no objection to its being placed on record as such.

The debate has proven a first class enter-tainment, the best of feeling has prevailed with the disputants and while here and there tainment, the best of feeling has prevailed with the disputants and while here and there some sensitive person has become a little "riled" by the witty spats and sarcas'ic hits of the wordy wurtors, a little "reflection and the congregational singing of the doxology has set all questionable points to flying again, and the outdoor interchange of thoughts and opinions has been all smiles, peace and serenity. The main question as to whether the disciples are scriptural in their position, teachings and prectices being discussed two days, Sweeney in the affirmative and Hauford in the negative is now reversed. Hanford affirming that the position of the M. E. Church is scriptural &c. Hanford in the affirming that the position of the M. E. Church is scriptural &c. Hanford in the affirming that the position as cholar and a gentleman. A d then Sweeney comes like an athlete bounding into the arena, armed at every point, as Jupiter from the brain of Minerva. Sharp and incisive, quick and accurate he makes every blow tell. The audience, numbering over the hundred, sways to and fro, and even the impartial spectator is at loss where to piace the palm of victory. Much interest is no dentrated in Hanford as he is a new man in theological polemics, this being the first time he has ever contended for swee stakes in the distinctions. When the smoke of the conflict has cleared away I will sum up results and tell you how much good has been done by this war of words.

ORANGE AND THE GREEN.

Narrow Escape From a Bloody Riot in Ireland.

The Lord Mayor of Dublin Hooted and Jeered in the Streets of Londonderry-Roofing Slates and Revolver Shots Fired Down Upon a Land League Street Procession-Many Persons Wounded.

LONDONDERRY, Nov. 2.—STILL LATER.—After the announcement of the decision of the City Council rescinding the motion to grant them the use of the City Hall for the purpose of holding a meeting, the Nationalists proceeded in a body to the railway station to await the arrival of Mr. Dawson, the Lord Mayor of Dublin. The train bearing His Lordship had scarcely halted at the depot when he appeared and was quickly seized and hurried to a carriage by a reception com-mittee. A procession was then formed and the line of march taken through the principal streets to the hotel, where a banquet had been prepared. Wherever possible along the line of the route of the procession Orangemen had taken positions in the windows and upon the roofs of the buildings. For a short time, as the Nationalists were passing along the roadway, the Orangemen above contended themselves with hooting, jeering, and showering imprecations upon the Land Leaguers. Suddenly a pistol shot was heard. This was apparently the signal for an attack, as revolvers were fired in rapid succession all along the line, while slates were torn from the roof and hurled upon the heads of the Nationalists. Having given vent to their excess of bad feeling the Orangemen made no further demonstrations and the violence subsided after a few desultory shots. Considering the extent of the firing and the number of missiles thrown, the casualties were few. One Catholic, a boy, was shot and may die from the effect of his wound, and perhaps ten or twelve others were more or less seriously The hotel was reached without further interruption and the Nationalists dispersed. Mr. Dawson in the afternoon issued a request to his friends and supporters to abstain from acts of violence in retaliation for the outrage. In the evening Mr. Dawson delivered a lecture at the National Institute on the subject of "Franchise." His audience was large and enthusiastic. No attempt was made to interfere with the progress of the lecture. The town is now perfectly quiet and no further outbreak is apprehended. Several Orangemen were arrested for firing revolvers at the procession and search is being made for others who are known to have been concerned in the attack.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured. "In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me. HORACE FAIRBROTHER."

Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup. - A Mother's Tribute. "While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,

MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CRANE." Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

JOSEPH WALDEN."

Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles.

Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
